Notice of Commission Activity (Water Utility Technical Conference)

Thursday, September 13, 2018
2:30 p.m.

Real-time audio broadcast of this activity may be accessed through the Commission's website at <http://psc.state.wy.us>.

To attend by telephone, call 1-877-735-7186. No PIN is required. Please mute your telephone unless and until called upon to participate.

Undocketed. Commission to host a public technical conference to discuss issues related to public utilities providing water service in Wyoming. All interested persons are invited to attend and participate.

This meeting is the second of a series to determine whether statutory, rules, or procedural changes are necessary or desirable to reduce the burden of regulation on public utilities providing water service in Wyoming, and if so, to develop, consistent with the continued provision of safe, adequate and reliable service, recommendations for legislation, rule changes, or other action by the Wyoming Public Service Commission.

Topics of identified during the July 20, 2018 meeting and to be discussed further include:

- Regulatory cracks – developing better coordination between regulatory authorities involved with water utilities;
- Regulatory costs and complexity – means of reducing regulatory burden;
- Reserve fund management – ensuring appropriate use of funds collected through rates;
- Access to capital – potential means of improving small private companies' ability to obtain financing without exaggerated rate impact; and
- Customer education and awareness – means of increasing customer understanding of the operating and regulatory responsibilities and expenses faced by water utilities.
